EDITOR'S picks

INSPIRED GIVING

I love it when style meets community spirit, and for this special Inspiration issue, I wanted to focus on companies that are doing just that! Each editor pick was specially chosen because a portion of sales goes to a very worthy Canadian cause.

1. THIS IS THE PART GRAPHIC T-SHIRT

Vancouver stylist Kim Appelt (Style by Kim xo) has collaborated with L.A based fashion house Stillwater to create a feel good t-shirt collection. The graphic tee states "This is the part where you find out who you are", with a portion of sales donated to the Canadian Heart & Stroke Foundation.
Stillwaterthebrand.com ($57)

2. WILL YOU FORGET? HOPE-KNOT PIN

Celebrity jewellery designer Mark Lash created the Hope-Knot collection, with all proceeds to Women's Brain Health Initiative in Canada. The Hope-Knot Project's mission is to combat women's brain aging disorders. Brooch, necklace and cufflinks available.
HopeKnot.org (starting at $10)

3. LIMITED EDITION NUMBERS TOTE

Rag & Bone limited edition canvas tote in support of RIGHT TO PLAY, a global organization that uses sport and play to educate and empower children facing adversity. For purchase exclusively at Holt Renfrew for a limited time only. Available in black, cream and army green.
Holt Renfrew ($55)

4. COACHELLA INSPIRED ELEPHANT

Adorable "Coachella inspired" stuffed elephant is part of the Shop for Hope Collection. Purchase a specially marked product, like this adorable elephant, and net proceeds will go to Canadian Women's Foundation to assist women and children in local communities across Canada.
